

regenerate by only adding a new column for the manufacture date from the MSN. Do not change any of the other columns

Below is the updated table detailing available information for aircraft in the SriLankan Airlines fleet, with an added column for the estimated Manufacture Date based on the Manufacturer Serial Number (MSN). Please note that specific ownership details (such as lessor names per individual aircraft) and comprehensive commissioning or refurbishment dates for each tail number are not consistently available in the search results. The manufacture dates provided are estimations based on MSN ranges as per the provided code execution .

General Fleet Information:

- SriLankan Airlines operates an all-Airbus fleet. As of March 2024, this fleet comprised 22 aircraft: seven A320-200s, two A320neos, four A321neos, two A330-200s, and seven A330-300s.
- The airline primarily leases its aircraft. For example, two A321neo aircraft were acquired through leases from Air Lease Corporation and AerCap.
- Information regarding specific refurbishment dates for individual current aircraft is not detailed in the provided results. However, fleet modernization is an ongoing effort, with new aircraft deliveries and cabin enhancements mentioned. For instance, the A330-300 aircraft inducted from 2014 offered modern comforts and technology.
